Executive Summary

This deliverable describes the impact of STREAM-OD in ZF's case. In it, the current status of the ZF production line as a consequence of the implementation of STREAM-OD is widely described by means of the analysis of data from the demo manufacturing, a summary of improvements, and a demo video showing the current status.

Finally, with the aim of showing the impact of the project on ZF's case, the updated business figures after STREAM-OD are also shown. The updated figures clearly show the positive impact of all the actions implemented in STREAM-OD.
